SYNDICATE FAILED TO DEPOSIT FUNDS.

Chester Man, Held for Altering Worthless Check is Admitted to Bail.

S. B. Crawford of Chester, in the Richmond county jail since early in the week, on a charge of having purchased an automobile from the Consolidated Auto company of Columbia with a bogus check for $1,815, was released on $2,000 bond yesterday. His case will be heard at the next session of N. court.

Crawford claims that a stock company had been formed in Chester, of which he was a member, and that he was instructed to come to Columbia and purchase a car for transfer purposes, to give a check for same and that the other members of the company would deposit sufficient money to meet the check by the time it reached the bank in Chester. Some time ago Crawford, along with the plans of the syndicate as they did not deposit the money and the check was returned.

A rural policeman, who had started in chase of Crawford, overtook him at McCormick, just this side of Chester, and brought him back to Chester. Crawford claims that he was on his way home to Columbia State, Aug. 11th.

We have made an effort to verify the above article today but have been unable to do so. Parties in Chester know nothing of a syndicate organized for the purpose of buying a car mentioned and every one is of the opinion that there is some mistake about the matter. Mr. Crawford is not known as a Chester county man and those most intimately acquainted with him are of the opinion that Mr. Crawford has not attempted to do anything of the kind. They think that the whole affair is a misunderstanding and that Mr. Crawford will be able to clear him of the charge completely.

YORK COUNTY NEWS.

Joseph Caldwell and daughter, Miss Kathleen, have returned to their home in Queto, Tex., after spending some time with the family of J. M. Wright and wife.

Mrs. J. W. Kirkpatrick, Misses Frances Finley, Louise Oates, Louise Barron and Mr. Archie Barron moved to Linwood on Monday to attend the A. R. P. Young Peoples' Convention, which will be in session there for about ten days.

Dr. E. E. Gillespie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was expected to be back from his vacation Sunday but did not get home owing to the fact that he was called to Boston on account of the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Weatherly.

Mr. James F. Glenn, of Sumter, returned to York for a visit to his relatives on Saturday and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hall, Mr. Wade H. Willford and Miss Margaret Willford. Mr. Glenn has a host of friends in York; his former home, who are delighted to welcome him to our town.

News was received here yesterday by long distance phone to the effect that Mrs. Paul F. Foy, Superintendent of York Cotton Oil Company, had been injured in an automobile accident near Spartanburg Saturday night. His shoulder being dislocated. L. AND C. CATAWBA DAMAGE.

Through the courtesy of Superintendent A. P. Melure of the Lan-ester and Chester Railway, two of the local newspaper men visited the Catawba river recently, going over on the work train to view the scene of destruction following the wrecking of the trestle in the flood of July 16 and 17. After the repair of the Cane creek trestle a large force of hands were put to work at the river, down the river bottom, preparatory to grading and laying a temporary track to the river bank to connect with the large ferry that will be used until the trestle can be replaced and the approaches rebuilt. The steel trestle is a wreck but not a total loss. About one thousand feet of trestle was washed away on the Lancaster side and the ties and rails being deposited in the bottoms for a distance of several hundred yards from their original position. On the Chester side the bluffs prevented the destruction reaching so far back from the banks, but here also the tremendous volume of water and force of the current can be judged when one sees the track for a distance of four hundred feet swept down the fill and landed at the bottom upside down.

The four spans of steel trestle 150 feet long, are broken loose from the piers and lie in the bed of the stream, turned over on their side some distance from the piers, one of which is overturned and will have to be rebuilt. The five brick and cement piers were erected at a cost of $11,000. The steel trestle also damaged in places and with parts missing, can be recovered and used but will require many months of hard work and thousands of dollars to put the entire structure back into its original condition.

The ferry barge is now being assembled in Lancaster and will be taken to the river in sections and put together. It will be 250x60 feet and will have rails laid over it so that a freight car can be run on to it and ferried across. The track on both sides of the river has been graded down to the water's edge and the trains will run to the river bank on "port side and exchange cars of freight. The work is progressing rapidly and Superintendent Melure hopes with the large force of hands now at work to resume a schedule of freight and passenger traffic within the next few days.—Lancaster Citizen.

DREAMLAND MONDAY.
Wonderful Mme. Petrova, whose marvelous powers of pantomime and emotional expression have so often thrilled and delighted Metro audiences, again make her bow from the stage, this time in a veritable photoplay masterpiece, "The Scarlet Woman." Rarely, if ever, has this gifted artist found a vehicle so well suited to her distinctive charm and supreme dramatic gifts as this latest production of the Popular Plays and Players studio. The scenario of "The Scarlet Woman" is from the brilliant pen of the talented playwright Aaron Hoffman, who is the author of many of the most popular features in which Mme. Petrova has recently appeared among them "Playing With Fire," the famous star's last offering on the Metro program, "The Social Market," "What Will People Say?" and others equally notable. "The Scarlet Woman" which was produced under the direction of Edward Laemmle, surpasses in dramatic power and startling situations even these tremendous popular photoplays and may be said to set a new high standard for Mr. Hoffman's contributions to the silent drama. To see it is to see wonderful Mme. Petrova in a role that she has never before played.

The story of "The Scarlet Woman" portrays with artistic fidelity the life of a noblehearted woman, who after making a supreme sacrifice for her weakling husband, when he is in the shadow of the gallows, is cast off by him on the expiration of the short term of imprisonment which her sacrifice had won for him.

How, spurred by the world, she had become a woman without heart or conscience, preying on all who come under the spell of her beauty. How the unscrupulous District Attorney, who has wronged her in his turn, is disgraced, largely through information that she is able to furnish the reform party with the most damning facts of her life. How she is able to find her revenge upon her and the man responsible for the wrongs that have engulfed him, arranges for their meeting; how a deep and sincere attachment springs up between the two, she believing that her past is known to him, while on his part he believes she is as pure and good as she seems to be.

Of their wedding and of the revelation of her shame that later comes, of his swift forgiveness and her mis- understanding which leads both deep into the abyss of bitterness and humiliation of the last love that brings them together and to happiness at the last. All form a story of supreme dramatic appeal.

A UNIQUE RECORD.

Very Few Like It In Our Broad Republic.

Honorable testimony for Doan's Kidney Pills, published in every local paper of itself convincing evidence of merit. Confirmed testimony forms still stronger evidence. Years ago, a citizen of Chester greatly acknowledged the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the proof more convincing. Cases of this kind are plentiful in the work of Doan's Kidney Pills—the record is unique.

Miss S. A. McClintock, 172 Columbia St., Chester, says: "My kidneys bothered me for some years, caused by my hurting back. The action of my kidneys was irregular at times and I had severe pain across the small of my back. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at the Chester Drug Co., brought great relief."

Statement given March 29, 1911, OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Miss McClintock said: "I use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally. They soon put a stop to backache or other kidney trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss McClintock has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

FIRST REGIMENT

REACHES TEXAS.

Texarkana, Ark. Aug. 9.—The First Texas Cavalry regiment entered Texas this afternoon. It will have to traverse the entire length of the State before reaching its destination. It will be Friday before the end of the journey is reached.

Memphis, Tenn., gave the Palmetto Guard a hearty reception. A committee headed by Gen. S. T. Carver had wired Col. Elyse replied: "Regret exceedingly can not avail ourselves of your kind offer because of lateness of arrival."

Although it was 2 a. m. when Memphis was reached Gen. Craver was at the depot and asked permission to send 500 sandwiches into the train. They made a grateful addition for breakfast this morning.

The Mississippi river was crossed at Memphis and the route today has been through Arkansas. A stop was made at Little Rock and the men were given exercise.

Every one continued to comment on the fine showing and the splendid behavior of the South Carolina troops. The health of the men continues excellent.
